Description English Composition II continues the study of the writing process stressed in Composition I. Students will practice reading and writing critically and analytically, writing exposition, persuasion/argumentation, and the research paper.

Learning outcomes Upon successfully completing this course, the student will be able to:

- analyze, evaluate, document, and draw inferences from various sources,
- identify, select, and analyze appropriate research methods, research questions, and evidence for a specific rhetorical situation,
- use argumentative strategies and genres in order to engage various audiences,
- integrate others' ideas with their own,
- use grammatical, stylistic, and mechanical formats and conventions appropriate to rhetorical situations and audience constraints,
- produce well reasoned, argumentative essays demonstrating rhetorical engagement, and
- reflect on what contributed to their writing process and evaluate their own work.
